I. B. Conner was in Chicago a day or two last week.

Joel Monroe's little son, Leon, is sick with Malarial fever.

Mr. Geo. H. Ghrist, of Cassopolis, was a caller at this office on Saturday.

Miss Hattie Van Kirk, of Bloomington, was among our visitors Saturday.

The next teachers' examination will be held at Bangor, on Friday, Nov. 29th.

Bartram & Millington have something interesting for you to read in this issue.

Brother C. C. Phillips, of the Day Spring, was a caller at this office last Friday.

Miss Della Wheeler, of Kalamazoo, is visiting friends in Paw Paw and Almena.

S. D. Towers and wife, of Kalamazoo, spent Sunday with C. V. Burdick and family in Paw Paw.

The Home Mission society will meet at the residence of Mrs. Dr. Dunning to-morrow afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Dewey and child, of South Haven, were guests of Mrs. Heckert last Wednesday and Thursday.

If you have't time to read Broughton's new "ad" this week, step into his store and he will tell you all about it.

It is hoped that the business men of this village will close their stores during the services on Thanksgiving day.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. Odell's, on Friday the 23d inst., at 2:30 p. m. Special business; come everyone.

Miss Josie Chapman entertained a company of her friends last evening. The occasion was her fifteenth birthday.

Lincoln H. Titus, the hustling young attorney of Hartford, was present at the session of the circuit court last week.

Hon. J. G. Parkhurst of Decatur, and Hon. Milan Wiggins and wife, of Bloomington, took dinner at the Dyckman last Friday.

Fred Oelbeck has temporarily relinquished the cleaver, and is giving his undivided attention to a felon on his right hand.

A pedro party was given last Wednesday evening, at his father's house, by Guy Harrison. A large number of young people attended.

C. R. Avery enumerates some attractive bargains in his new advertisement. Observe what he has to say under the head of "A Proposition."

Latest reports to the State Board of Health show that there is diphtheria at 33 places, scarlet fever at 31, typhoid fever at 40 and measles at 7.

Dr. O. B. Hayden, of Chicago, is in town this week. The Doctor reports himself as being well pleased with the outlook for business in his new home.

A man named Haskins, working in the woods near White Oak, had three or four ribs broken Saturday by the "kicking" of a tree which he had felled.

Mrs. Riley Bangs was called to New Hudson, Oakland county, last Saturday, by a telegram announcing the death of her mother, which occurred on the 15th inst.

The following letters remain uncalled for in the Paw Paw postoffice: Miss Mary Cadwell, Mrs. L. E. Cole, Mrs. Ella Fraley Jackson, Mrs. James Wilkey.

Attorney V. H. Lockwood, of Kalamazoo, was in town one day last week on business in connection with the probating of the estate of his father recently deceased.

Probably the busiest place in town is the evaporator works of C. F. & L. E. Trescott. About 40 persons are employed there and the work continues, without intermission, night and day.

It is estimated that four billions of cigars are smoked in this country annually. Judging from the number consumed by the boys in Paw Paw, it occurs to us that this is a low estimate.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church of Almena will hold a fair at Hill's hall Friday evening, Nov. 29th. A New England supper will be served. A cordial invitation extended to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Clapp and children, of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Francisco, of Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hale, of Oshtemo, and Mrs. S. D. Mowry, of Three Rivers, have been making a visit to John T. and Mrs. Clapp.

In the case of the people against John Mitchell, charged with larceny from W. VanAntwerp, of the Dyckman House, the jury, without leaving their place in the court room, rendered a verdict of "not guilty." J. E. Chandler very ably conducted the defense.

Thomas Hurley has fitted up a gymnasium in the upper story of the Maynard building. A large number of the young men of the village have joined the class, and if it is properly conducted, substantial benefit will accrue to those who take part in these athletic exercises.

The testimonial of the Paw Paw Fruit Evaporator works in favor of the Snow hot-air furnace is a clincher as to its merits. It must be remembered that in the evaporating business a furnace is subjected to an intense heat every hour of the twenty-four and every day in the week.

A number of the ladies of the Free Baptist society gave grandma Landphere a very pleasant surprise last Wednesday by coming in upon her unawares and, after a time spent in social intercourse, spreading her table with the good things they had brought and taking dinner with her.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist church will hold a social in the church parlors, this evening, Nov. 20th. A fine musical and literary programme has been prepared, which will be rendered by grown up boys and girls. Come and hear them speak the pieces and sing the songs of twenty years ago.

Union Thanksgiving service will be held at the Free Baptist church, on Thursday 28th, at 10:30 a. m. Rev H. A. Pallister will deliver the discourse. At the close of the service a contribution will be taken up, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the deserving poor of this village. Praise service, conducted by Mrs. Barton, in the evening.

On next Sunday evening a Union Temperance service will be held at the First Baptist church. The object of this service is to aid in the effort being made to secure the benefit, in this county, of the Local Option law. A collection will be taken, in accordance with the resolution passed at the convention held at Hartford, to aid in meeting the expenses of the campaign.

About 7 o'clock last evening the court house was discovered to be on fire, it having originated from the heat of a bracket lamp burning at the head of the stairs leading to the court room. Although discovered in its incipency, it had made a progress that in a few minutes more the structure would have been doomed. The flames were easily suppressed and the damage was trifling.

John Searls spent Sunday in this place on his return from his hunting excursion in Northern Michigan.

The Progressive Farmers' club met with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Gilman last Thursday afternoon. A very large number were present and it goes without saying that a good time was had.

A colored man, employed as cook at the Dyckman house, made an assault with a razor on Mr. J. M. Longwell on Saturday evening. Justice Mason gave him the alternative of paying a $5 fine or boarding with McFarlin 15 days. He boards.

January 12th, 1871, Samuel Barrows hired a team of Mrs. Christina Wineholtz, of Berlamont, this county, and in company with Mr. Wineholtz, the lady's husband, started for Coldwater. Never since that eventful day has Mr. Wineholtz or the team been seen or heard from by Mrs. W. Barrows was recently discovered and was yesterday brought to Paw Paw and arraigned for examination before Justice Mason.

Mr. A. Van Anken has shipped, thus far this season, seventeen cart-loads of apples and has about as many more to ship. Philadelphia has been his principal market, although he has shipped a few single car lots to local points in Pennsylvania and the west. While growers have received remunerative prices for their product, shippers feel fairly well satisfied with the season's results.

At a meeting of the Van Buren County grange, held at Lawrence on the 7th inst., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Master, W. R. Sirrine; Overseer, A. U. Barnes; Lecturer, Mrs. J. M. Fisk; Steward, J. B. Wilcox; Asst. Steward, J. M. Blowers; Chaplain, O. M. Sikes; Treasurer, D. K. Charles; Secretary, E. L. Warner; Gate Keeper, D. Woodman; Pomona, Mrs. F. Branch; Flora, Mrs. T. Landphere; Ceres, Mrs. W. R. Sirrine; Lady Asst. Steward, Mrs. J. M. Blowers. Executive committee--Mrs. O. M. Sikes, J. C. Gould, J. E. Packer. Delegate to State Grange--C. B. Charles.

On last Thursday evening, Miss Minnie Dunning closed her second year of labor among us by a public rehearsal of her music class. Both the arrangement and execution of the programme well indicated the systematic, careful supervision so characteristic of the work of Miss Dunning, who has gained a well-earned reputation as a thorough instructress in her chosen vocation. The selections were all from the best composers, and not only did the more advanced pupils acquit themselves with much credit, but also several exceedingly youthful performers made their debut very successfully, even though their first music lesson dates no farther back in the misty past than last August. Indeed, Part I, of the programme was almost entirely devoted to the tyros, while Part II, comprised the more difficult pieces, a selection from Beethoven being very finely rendered by Miss Dunning herself. Mesdames Chappell and Harvey with Messrs. Koons and Free contributed a beautiful vocal quartette, and Mrs. Ed. Gilman sang a lullaby from "Erminie," in her most charming style. Altogether, the Musical was a great success, and we congratulate both Miss Dunning and her pupils on the good results of faithful work.
